It has been a busy, but brilliant week!

Year 4 have been absolute superstars on their first residential. They have the official title of 'Best residential sleepers ever!'. Many of the children were quite nervous about going but they have absolutely smashed it; trying new activities, new food and staying away for two nights. Well done to them all! A huge thank you to the five staff who gave up their time (and sleep) to ensure that the children had the best time possible.

The rest of the school embraced World Book Day with gusto! During the afternoon the older children shared books with the younger children and it was a privilege to watch. The virtual book fair is open until Sunday – please do pop along to have a look. There are some really great priced books and for every five books that are bought we receive one free.

Thank you to Mrs Phillips for organising World Book Day and the Book Fair. Thank you to the staff for putting so much effort into their costumes.

We have finished the week with an absolutely gorgeous Mother's Day Assembly from Reception. Thank you to the staff for organising and to everyone who came. We hope you enjoyed your cuppa and cake!

Wishing everyone a special Mothering Sunday weekend. Mrs McConnell

Our virtual book fair is open until Sunday!

For every 5 books sold the school will receive one free book!

Friday 15th
March

Next Friday is Red Nose Day!

Pupil Parliament have decided that everyone can come to school wearing something or everything red e.g. a red sock, red top, red hair or all red!

They are welcome to use red hair spray but please, no hair glitter – you wouldn't believe the mess it makes! Donations to Comic Relief welcome and Pupil Parliament reps will collect in class.

Headteacher Certificates Week Ending 8 March 2024

Foxcubs Seva for beginning to form friendships with others by sharing her play ideas. It was lovely to see you play all afternoon with a new friend.	Joshua for beginning to make a marked effort with his listening. He has begun seeking out adults and telling us "I listened the first time". Well done Josh keep up the great work.
Reception Jack for always trying his best in everything and being a kind friend. Well done Jack.	Isabelle K for having the most positive attitude in the classroom and for her inquisitive approach to learning.
Year 1 Alfie for settling quickly into the classroom this week and completing some morning job work independently.	Sophie for a lovely partner routine in dance, you had good teamwork, movement, strength and timing.
Year 2 Edward for his colourful and detailed drawing and labelling of human features of a city in Geography.	Makenna for really excelling with her maths work on mass and capacity this week. We have loved seeing you grasp this concept so well.
Year 3 Sofia for her creation in D.T. The colours and flavours were carefully thought out to produce an appetising and appealing seasonal tart.	Annie for solving different questions in maths about fractions including ordering and comparing them.
Year 5 Eva for always working hard, being a great role model to others and for finding out a really fun fact about penguins!	Lienke for creating a detailed poster on the life cycle of a Kangaroo.
Year 6 Maddy for working extremely scientifically when investigating a range of circuits, during science.	Ava for her outstanding efforts when independently writing a biography in English this week.
