Thank you to everyone for dressing in red to support Comic Relief today; everyone looked great!

Well done to Barn Owls (Yr3) for a wonderful assembly. The singing was très bien!

Next week marks the beginning of our Performing Arts Fortnight. Class and assembly performances will begin next week so please make sure that children have anything in school they need for performances. We have now finalised the performers for the evening performance on the 26th and letters will go out on Monday.

Fingers crossed for a slightly drier weekend!

Headteacher Certificates Week Ending 15 March 2024

Foxcubs Daisy for sharing her ideas with the large construction bricks this week.	Amelia R for her super listening and tidying up this week.
Reception Leo S for trying hard in his phonics and writing. Well done Leo.	Lilia for making an effort in all areas of her learning and working very hard to make positive choices all around the class.
Year 1 Nathan for great independent work this week in maths measuring different lengths.	Athena for a demonstrating fantastic engagement levels, and creating her own dance in PE to the beat and rhythm of the music.
Year 2 Izzy for her enthusiasm and willingness to participate in and try her best at everything she does at school.	James for really persevering with his maths learning this week and really grasping capacity and volume.
Year 3 Gillen for being an excellent team player in PE. His awareness and concentration in making sure that his team members were ready was a credit to his team.	Ali for remembering and sharing facts about Greek gods and goddesses and using super vocabulary in his work.
Year 4 Paul for always trying your hardest with your learning even when you are finding it tricky. You wowed me with your writing about the "three trees". well done!	Immy for her lovely work on the folktale "The Three Trees" and being such a supportive friend to everyone in Kingfishers.
Year 5 Yaron for working on his English target and helping his friends with the greater depth challenge questions in maths.	Holly for working so hard on her phonics and her writing.
Year 6 Lateisha for your impressive dedication to your maths studies. You've gone above and beyond. Well done!	Ollie for the well thought out contributions he has made, during both English and maths.
